

As you have been able to read in a previous article, the +60 team play "saw the birds they sing" and now the team is playing an international match this weekend.

We have previously described the flying +60 team in this lovely life-affirming article.

Now an international test match awaits the team. The match date has been set for ## Saturday 25 March 2023 at 11:30 at the Swanmill facility.

It's England's VET60 team coming over for B.93's first "real" international game in years!

It will be a match where the entire menagerie surrounding the match is put to use:

- The national anthem must be sung
- With referee and linesmen
- 1 1/2-hour match....Puuuuha!
- DBU meets with a film crew
- One of the club's photographers takes a snapshot from the match.

Subsequently, both teams gather for social gatherings with something good for the palate at the entire club's Giacomo's "Chef's Gourmet".

Don't miss out on this truly unique opportunity to see delights at a leisurely pace!

You can read more about the +60 team's opponents on this Facebook page.

See the position in the +60 range with your own eyes. Impressive.

Bonus info: The team has now also won the "Winter tournament" ... again. Now for the 2022/23 season. The team did not lose a game, but had to settle for a single draw.
